

Notice on Purchasing Exhibition Liability Insurance

Dear Exhibitors,

Thank you for participating in the China CNC Machine Tool Fair 2024 (CCMT2024)!

In order to strengthen the safety production work of exhibition, the Shanghai New International Expo Centre recently released the "Detailed Regulations for Implementing Exhibition Safety Supervision Work". According to the relevant regulations, all special exhibition booths are required to purchase exhibition liability insurance, which must cover employer's liability insurance, third-party liability insurance, property damage liability insurance, and other hired staff, the total cumulative compensation limit shall not be less than RMB 8 million yuan.

To effectively maintain and safeguard the interests of your company, please notify and urge your builders to purchase exhibition liability insurance. For specific matters, please contact the designated official contractor of CCMT2024: Shanghai Arts & Sales Expo Ltd. (Hall E1-E3, N1-N5, W1-W5) and Beijing Pico Exhibition Management Co., Ltd. (Hall E4-E7).

Thank you for your support and cooperation!
